Rejection of Proposal for expansion of Haldia Refinery

3233. SHRI CHITTA BASU: Will the Minister of PETROLEUM AND NATURAL GAS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government have since rejected the proposal for the expansion of the Indian Oil Corporation's refinery at Haldia; and

(b) if so, what are the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF PETROLEUM AND NATURAL GAS (SHRI BRAHM DUTT): (a) and (b) Expansion of Haldia Refinery is not considered feasible as it is estimated to cost as much as a grass root refinery. Further, other demand supply considerations also are not favourable for this expansion.

Service on Telephone No. 198.

3234. SHRI RAM AWADHESH SINGH: Will the Minister of COMMUNICATIONS be pleased to state;

(a) whether it is a fact that Area Managers can be approached after two days, Additional General Manager after three days for telephone complaints; if so, how many complaints were received and what action was taken thereon;

(b) whether it is also a fact that the service on No. 198 and other phones for receiving complaints have been checked and kept off the hook by telephone authorities ;

(c) whether 198 would be made a 24 hour service and its operation checked by senior authorities and users representatives; and

(d) whether Government would pay damages to the users whose phones do not operate for more than 12 hours?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF COMMUNICATIONS (SHRI GIRIDHAR GOMANGO): (a) Yes Sir. Information regarding number of complaints and action taken thereon is being collected and will be laid on the Table of the House.

(b) No, Sir.

(c) Fault Repair Service is already 24 hour service. Its operations are regularly checked by supervisory staff and by higher officers and these are considered adequate.

(d) The Department allows rebate in rental in cases of telephones remaining faulty for more than 15 days.
